

Suggested Intersessions for Migrants and Immigration Reform

For the Church and her leaders, that they remain steadfast in their solidarity with migrants and refugees, we pray to the Lord.

For all Catholics, that the Word of God will inspire us to act in our local communities to support and protect migrants and to advocate on their behalf, we pray to the Lord.

For all government leaders, especially members of Congress, that they may be imbued with wisdom by the Holy Spirit to enact laws that respect the human dignity of all migrants, we pray to the Lord.

For our neighbors, coworkers, friends, and all people of good will, that they may grow in their understanding of migration-related issues and be a voice for migrants in need, we pray to the Lord.

For Dreamers who arrived here as children through no choice of their own and today seek a way to make positive contributions to our common way life, we pray to the Lord.

For migrant workers, that they may labor in safe and just conditions, and that we who benefit from their efforts may be truly grateful for what they provide, we pray to the Lord.

For all persons who are forced to flee from their homes because of violence, persecution, poverty, natural disaster, and other causes, that God brings peace to them and their country of origin, we pray to the Lord.

For all those who have died while seeking a better life for themselves and their families, that their souls may rest in the peace of Christ and that such loss of life be prevented in the future, we pray to the Lord.
